

Privacy notice – Event management

You have been invited to an event or meeting organized by Volvo Group.

In order to make your event experience pleasant, we would like to gather your food preferences, intolerances and/or allergies (special category of personal data: health data).

If you prefer not to trust us with this information, the standard menu will be available for you during the event. This special category of personal data is only kept up until the event completion.

During the event Volvo Group may record photo, audio and video (referred to below as “Image Material”) for communication and marketing purposes.

By accepting the invitation to and by attending this event, you consent to that Volvo Group

- may process my health data (food intolerances and/or allergies) to determine what menu to prepare and serve
- may use the Image Material in accordance with the conditions stated below
  - The Image Material will be produced by Volvo Group or by suppliers hired by Volvo Group. Volvo Group retains the right to edit the Image Material.
  - Volvo Group will use the Image Material for communication and marketing purposes, for instance in recruitment publications, on Volvo Group’s website, or in annual reports.
  - Volvo Group has permission to use the Image Material in both printed and digital formats, including publication on Volvo Group’s website or in other digital channels.
  - Volvo Group retains the right to publish your name, and any quote approved by you, in connection with the Image Material.
  - Volvo Group has the right to use the Image Material without any limitation in time.
  - Volvo Group does not offer any compensation for use of the Image Material.

