

Conditions for registration

Please note that this registration is binding but can be passed on to another person.

Personal information

Any personal data collected through this registration process will be terminated no later than 12 month after the event has occurred. Kalmarsalen will not sell any data to third party. Data will beforehand only be shared with the official organiser of this event and when relevant with third party in order for them to fulfill their part of the overall arrangement. Example of third party can be the catering company and hotel for accommodation. Data will also be shared with a third party with legal right.

If you want to know which of your data Kalmarsalen has collected or want to change any of the information, please contact Kalmarsalen by email konferens@kalmarsalen.se or + 46 480421000.

Payment

Your invoice will be sent after you have fulfilled the registration. Terms of payment is stated on the invoice. Any changes that require a new invoice to be sent comes with a fee of 200 SEK which will be added to the new invoice. This is regardless if the change require a debit or credit invoice.